Since childhood I was fortunate to have just enough combined Angelic and human guidance to lead me to embrace my abilities. Early on I'd see and hear "ghosts" and sense things not readily apparent to those around me. ++ In your Sound Healing sessions you experience Tibetan bowls and tuning forks on your energy meridians, while I read your fields and discuss information I'm receiving. ++ Hypnotherapy for conflict resolution and past life recall sessions are customized to suit your needs and extremely effective in clearing our bad habits, old relationship gunk. You move past the emotional side of life and into empowerment, and right action. Past Life Recall is also available.
